COLLEGE OF LETTERS AND SCIENCE

COLLEGE ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS FOR TRANSFER STUDENTS

THIS MAJOR IS OFFERED BY THE COLLEGE OF LETTERS AND SCIENCE (L&S)

IMPORTANT information for students applying for admission to L&S for the fall 2025 application cycle and beyond

Completion of Essential Skills requirements (Reading & Composition, Quantitative Reasoning, and Foreign Language) or Cal-GETC/IGETC will no longer be a requirement for admission; however, completion of either is strongly recommended prior to enrollment at UC Berkeley to ensure timely degree progress. More information on new policies is available on the L&S Transfer Student Applicants website.

By the end of the spring term preceding fall enrollment at Berkeley, you must complete:

- 1) The 7-course pattern (as found in the UC Transfer Admission Eligibility Courses Menu in ASSIST):
- Two transferable courses in English composition;
 - One transferable course in mathematical concepts and quantitative reasoning;
 - Four transferable college courses chosen from at least two of the following subject areas:
 - o arts and humanities
 - o social and behavioral sciences
 - o physical and biological sciences

AND

- 2) Major Requirements:
Follow the guidance on preparation for this major below.

WHY STUDY ECONOMICS?

Have you ever thought, "what can I do with a degree in Economics?"

Economics can be broadly defined as the study of human behaviors aimed at finding solutions to help improve peoples' lives. A degree in economics doesn't have to be about finance, banking, business, or government, . . . it can be useful to all individuals and can lead to many interesting and fulfilling career choices.
